

DEGREE LEVEL PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATIONS

Degree candidates are eligible to sit for professional examinations after training in accredited institutions and undergoing a one year internship program supervised by KNDI. There are six areas of internship which then guides sitting an examination in any of those areas. A degree candidate shall sit for two papers (paper 1 and paper 2) as per the area of internship as follows;

6. Food Science Nutrition Professional Examination

Paper 1; General Paper in Nutrition and Dietetics

This paper shall comprise of the general concepts in nutrition and dietetics covered during training and applied in the internship practicum.

The examinable areas for this professional examination include;

1. Macronutrients
2. Micronutrients
3. Food microbiology and parasitology
4. Leadership in nutrition and dietetics
5. Physical and inorganic chemistry

Paper 2; Specialized Paper

This paper shall comprise of core areas in food science nutrition.

The examinable areas for this professional examination include;

1. Entrepreneurship in nutrition
2. Food hygiene and safety
3. Biochemistry
4. Food biotechnology
5. Food preservation and processing
6. Food chemistry